- (a) hold the Confidential Information in strict confidence;
- (b) not disclose the Confidential Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party;
- (c) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose;

2.2 The Receiving Party shall promptly notify the Disclosing Party upon becoming aware of any actual or suspected unauthorised use or disclosure of the Confidential Information.

3. COMPELLED DISCLOSURE

If the Receiving Party is compelled by law, regulation, or court order to disclose any Confidential Information, the Receiving Party shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide the Disclosing Party with prompt prior written notice of such requirement so that the Disclosing Party may seek a protective order or other appropriate relief. If disclosure is ultimately required, the Receiving Party shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed.
